This Calendar is Dedicated to the Rebbe

The Lubavitcher Rebbe, Rabbi Menachem M. Schneerson, OB" M devoted his life to bringing Jews closer to Judaism, sending Shluchim (emissaries) throughout the globe.

The Chabad-Lubavitch movement comprises more than 3,500 centers throughout the world and emphasizes Ahavat Yisrael, love for a fellow Jew and the importance of living a Jewish life.

The Rebbe's passionate and uncompromising love for every Jew is legendary. His insistence that all Jews are equal, regardless of background, affiliation, or level of observance; his love and devotion to the Land of Israel, and his love for G-d and Torah are the beacons of truth and love that continue to guide and inspire us here at Chabad of the Five Towns and throughout the world.

September 2012

Dear Friend,

It is with great pleasure that we present you with this Jewish Calendar made for the Five Towns community and surrounding areas. Included in this calendar are all Chabad programs for the year 5773 and times for lighting Shabbat and Holiday candles, fast days, Chanukah Menorah lighting instructions and more. We are sure that you will find the information useful. This year, Chabad of the Five Towns marks 18 years since it was established. 18 is the numerical equivalent of the word Chai which means life. And Chabad of the Five Towns has infused tremendous life, vigor, unity and excitement into the community over the last 18 years for both the affiliated and non affiliated.

As we approach Rosh Hashanah 5773 and begin a new year of Chabad service to the Jewish communities of the Five Towns, we can proudly report that, thank G-d, we have had the privilege of touching the lives of many Jewish people through our Bar/Bat Mitzvah clubs, Senior's Program, Hebrew School, Friendship Circle, Bagel Babies, Women's classes, daily Shiurim for men, Gan Chamesh pre-school, Jewish Learning Institute and the many other daily programs that take place here at Chabad.

In April 2011, we saw a need to open a satellite Center in Hewlett to enhance Chabad's existing services there. As such, we are now proud to have a Chabad of Hewlett division, as part of Chabad of the Five Towns, under the expert guidance of Rabbi Nochem and Rivkie Tenenboim.

Our duty is to help strengthen Jewish identity, and so we reach out with a multitude of programs – Shabbat experiences, children's holiday programs, study groups & classes, a visit to the hospital, crisis counseling; a Jewish helping hand, or just a smile. Chabad offers strength of faith, education, pride and comfort. We care.

Many people ask us, what makes Chabad so unique? What gives us the ability to reach out and create programs where every Jew, affiliated or unaffiliated, observant, or non-observant, feels comfortable? The answer is: our core belief.

We believe that every Jew is valuable. Every Jew counts. At Chabad the objective is to inspire every Jew to find more joy and meaning in their own personal observance of Judaism; in their personal connection to their Jewish heritage. Watch the excitement on the faces of the children who partake in our youth programs; ask the thousands who participate in our events, and you begin to feel an incredible sense of community.

Along with success come new and greater responsibilities and obligations. More people know of us, depend on us, need us. For the work of Chabad to continue with the strength and effort that is necessary, we need your help, and so do the many who must still continue to strengthen their Judaism.

Please become our partners in the beautiful mitzvah of reaching out to our children, singles, families, hospital patients, senior citizens, unaffiliated Jews, those on the brink of assimilation, and to the whole community. Please open your hearts and send us your generous gift. Mail it today and help ensure a more Jewish tomorrow.

We wish you and your family a good sweet New Year. When the Al-mighty sees His children helping each other, He will surely inscribe us all in the Book of Life and bless us with health, prosperity and nachas.

Sincerely,

Rabbi Shneur Z. Wolowik

THE SHABBAT CANDLES

A married woman customarily lights two candles and may add an additional one for each of her children. An unmarried girl should light one candle in deference to her mother. As soon as a young girl can understand the idea of Shabbat and can say the blessing (approximately 3 years old) her parents should provide her with a candlestick and teach her to kindle the Shabbat candles. The young girl should light before her mother, in case she needs assistance from her.

It is customary to put a few coins into a Tzedakah pushka (charity box) before lighting the candles. The correct time to light the Shabbat candles is 18 minutes before sunset every Friday. Young girls should light just prior to this time.

The Festival Candles

Just as candles are lit in honor of the Shabbat so too they are lit in honor of the festivals. Various blessings are recited on different festivals. See the chart below: Blessing for Festival Candle Lighting.

Caution: When lighting after the onset of a festival, a pre-existing flame must be used to light the candles since it is prohibited to create a new flame by striking a match or lighter, etc. However, it is permissible to use (or transfer fire from) a flame burning continuously since the onset of the festival, such as a pilot light, gas or candle flame.

Procedure for Lighting the Shabbat Candles

The woman (or young girl) lights the candles, then spreads her hands out around the candles, drawing her hands inward in a circular motion three times to indicate her acceptance of the sanctity of the Shabbat. She then covers her eyes and says the Blessing:

Boruch A-toh A-do-noi E-lo-hei-nu Melech Ho-olom A-sheer Ki-de-sha-nu Be-mitz-vo-sov Vi-tzi-vo-nu Le-had-lik Ner Shel Sha-bos Ko-desh. Bless are You, L-rd, our G-d, King of the universe, who has hallowed us through His commandments, and has commanded us to kindle the light of the holy Shabbat.

She then uncovers her eyes to behold the Shabbat Lights. The time of lighting is considered especially propitious to pray to G-d for health and happiness. The prayer is readily accepted because it is said during the performance of this great mitzvah of lighting the Shabbat Candles.

Caution: The candles must be lit before Sunset. It is prohibited and is a desecration of the Shabbat to light the candles after sunset.

Festival Schedule

	Date	Festival	Blessing(s)
*	September 16	First Eve of Rosh Hashana	No. 1 and 4
	September 17	Second Eve of Rosh Hashana	No. 1 and 4
*	September 26	Eve of Yom Kippur	No. 2 and 4
*	September 30	First Eve of Sukkot	No. 3 and 4
	October 1	Second Eve of Sukkot	No. 3 and 4
*	October 7	Eve of Shemini Atzeret	No. 3 and 4
	October 8	Eve of Simchat Torah	No. 3 and 4
*	March 25	First Seder Night	No. 3 and 4
	March 26	Second Seder Night	No. 3 and 4
*	March 31	Seventh Eve of Passover	No. 3
	April 1	Eighth Eve of Passover	No. 3
*	May 14	First Eve of Shavuot	No. 3 and 4
	May 15	Second Eve of Shavuot	No. 3 and 4

* If lighting after sunset, light only from a pre-existing flame.

 Light only from a pre-existing flame.

A pre-existing flame is a flame burning continuously since the onset of a festival—such as a pilot light, gas or candle flame.
